

Lord Digby Jones Commends TRAC's Australasia Plans

The TRAC logo consists of the word "trac" in a bold, lowercase, sans-serif font, colored yellow. It is positioned inside a black diamond shape, which is itself centered within a larger white diamond. The background of the entire page features a subtle grid pattern.

Australasian Oil & Gas Exhibition and Conference 2010

DATE, LOCATION: 24-26 March 2010, Perth Convention Exhibition Centre

Recent presence at Australasia's largest Oil & Gas industry exhibition, attracting over 9000 visitors and 500 exhibitors brought commendation for TRAC Oil & Gas Ltd.

Lord Digby Jones; former head of the Confederation of British Industry (CBI), politician and current Ambassador for UK Trade & Investment commended TRAC's plans for international growth and development including the Australasia region.

TRAC Oil and Gas Ltd have an excellent record of successfully delivering for their customers, and are continually asked to provide their unique solutions to overseas locations. Taking the lead in this, TRAC have developed a global strategy to deliver for their customers in key Oil & Gas hubs throughout the world.

Lord Digby Jones (left) meets Daniel Hawthorn (right), General Manager TRAC Oil and Gas at the AOG Exhibition and Conference 2010

Lord Jones, who was a keynote speaker at the recent AOG conference, met with TRAC's General Manager – Daniel Hawthorn, and commented:

'TRAC is exactly the kind of company that we like to encourage and enjoy promoting to our overseas counterparts. They have a solid and successful track record, buckets of enthusiasm and a clear ambition and drive to succeed. I commend TRAC in their global development plans and wish them all success in the future.'

For more info, please contact:

samantha.borstlap@trac.com

www.trac.com